The Preamble of the Constitution

The Preamble serves as the introduction to the Constitution and outlines its fundamental purposes and guiding principles. It begins with the phrase "We the People," emphasizing that the authority of the government derives from the people. The Preamble sets the stage for the Constitution's intent to establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty.

Key Objectives of the Preamble

In understanding the Preamble, it is essential to recognize its key objectives, which frame the Constitution's broader goals:

- Establish Justice: The Constitution aims to create a fair legal system.

- Ensure Domestic Tranquility: The government is responsible for maintaining peace
